

CHARITY

Worldwide, distance running events have gained importance as fund raising platforms. Since events like these symbolize community spirit and melt barriers, they serve as a wonderful trigger for runners to do their bit for charity.

Fund raising is at the heart of the TCS World 10K Bangalore. 88 NGOs representing varied causes like arts, culture and sports, civic and community development, disability, education, environment and wildlife, health, human rights, social services, vocational training, and women, children and the aged, registered with the Event's official Charity Partner, Bangalore Cares. Some NGOs used this event as a platform to raise awareness for the work they undertake, and some to raise amounts for their charitable activities. Each NGO was empowered, under the able supervision of Bangalore Cares, to reach out to corporates and the citizens of Bangalore and India. Individuals and companies could choose a cause closest to their hearts and reach out to their friends, colleagues and family in their fund raising mission.

Fund raising is facilitated by an easy-to-use model designed for people of all walks of life to raise funds for their preferred cause/NGO.

Charity raising is encouraged through 'pledges'. Pledges are donations of any amount made by family, friends, colleagues, companies, associates, acquaintances of the runner, who wish to support his/her cause with their contributions.

All in the Family!!

A husband-wife duo coupled their fund raising efforts, together raising an amount of ₹ 17 lacs. The ₹ 1 lakh raised by Mrs Bharati Kamath as a Care Champion was for the benefit of Nightingales Medical Trust. Her husband, Mr Amarnath Kamath, complimented her fund raising efforts by donating ₹ 16 lacs, making Mr Kamath the single largest donor at the TCS World 10K Bangalore 2011. Amounts donated by him, went in support of following 11 NGO's –

(i) GoSports Foundation; (ii) Nightingales Medical Trust; (iii) The Association of People with Disabilities; (iv) Bangalore Hospice Trust (Karunashraya); (v) Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan; (vi) Sankara Eye Care Institutions; (vii) CUPA; (viii) Mobility India; (ix) Anga Karunya Kendra; (x) Bangalore Cares Trust; (xi) BOSCO.

Marks & Spencer

Strategically, since 2006, Marks & Spencer (M&S) has been actively supporting and raising funds for the Association of People with Disabilities (APD). This conscious decision of supporting a single organization is to make a sustained contribution in the progress of the NGO's growth, rather than helping many organizations arbitrarily. Throughout the year, M&S colleagues are encouraged not only to donate money for APD, but also to make an extra effort to visit APD facilities and meet the beneficiaries, be it gifting a mobility aid bought from their donation or attend the lunch which they sponsored in APD in memory of their loved ones. Active involvement is given equal importance.

30 colleagues from M&S India Regional office in Bangalore participated in the TCS World 10K Bangalore on 5th June 2011. M&S has raised an amount of INR 980,000 (or 13,150 GBP) for APD through this Event. Many of M&S colleagues who were committed to run the 5.7 km distance got in touch with their friends, family and business partners to sponsor their run. Simple and clear communication about the cause did the trick. Fund raising efforts were not only restricted within the confines of M&S offices. Posters about the Event and about M&S supporting APD were put up in M&S Bangalore stores. Contributions were invited from the M&S loyal customers. Any customer contributing an amount of more than ₹ 1,000 towards this cause was gifted a special M&S-APD tee shirt. The response was overwhelming proving without a doubt, that there is a lot of goodness within every individual just waiting to be tapped.

Apart from the funds generated in the run, in the last 5 years M&S has sponsored 90 mobility aids, vocationally trained 236 physically challenged and helped them gain meaningful employment, supported 52 mentally challenged children to acquire life skills and sensitised 10,665 workers in the M&S supply chain on disability.

TESTIMONIALS

“It's my 4th year and to show my consistency towards various causes, I supported 23 NGOs, who are working dedicatedly for various issues through the TCS World 10K Bangalore. These causes are very dear to me and over the last 7 years I have been doing my bit in terms of service. My sole intention is to make the public at large aware on the various volunteering opportunities there truly are and causes for which one could volunteer and raise funds to the best of their abilities. This makes me feel so good to be part of the social sector, and so many organisations.”

Prarthana Unkalkar
(Regional Head – iVolunteer)

“At Capgemini, the rule was simple – anyone who registers to be part of the Corporate Cares team had to raise a minimum of INR 2,400 (the minimum amount required to support one girl child's education for a year). My target was to raise Rs 10,000, i.e. sponsor 4 children for an entire year. To add a little excitement to my endeavour, I wanted to involve my friends, colleagues and relatives to contribute their bit and be part of this Program. I framed a nice email talking about the cause and requesting people to support me in helping NanhiKali Foundation. To my excitement, I received a lot of encouraging words, emails and money poured in to support this great cause. An overwhelming response from all my contacts continued to pour in, even after the run was over and even after I stopped collecting funds for the cause. I raised INR 21,750, which is more than double the amount I had initially planned to raise!

What excited me about the TCS World 10K Bangalore is that, it is not just any ordinary running event wherein the high is solely crossing the finish line, but there are strings attached to it – raising funds for a noble cause. It certainly was my time to do something for the society.”

Ravindranath Gowda
